Issue 67 December 2023

Christmas Day is a festive occasion traditionally associated with the birth of Jesus Christ. Over time, it has evolved into a joyous and inclusive celebration appreciated by people from various backgrounds. The season is characterized by the warmth of gift-giving, shared laughter during festive meals, and the delightful exchange of holiday cards. We want to wish everyone of you have a wonderful Christmas and a great time with your family and friends!

5 Ways to Celebrate Christmas

- Decorate your home with festive decorations, including a Christmas tree, lights, ornaments, and wreaths.
- Exchange gifts with families and friends.
- Share a festive meal of roast turkey, ham, or other traditional dishes.
- Watch a holiday movies.
- Make a donation to charity during the holiday season.

Communication is key to a healthy relationship with your friends and families.

The core element of communication is “Showing Respect”.

1. It all starts with self-respect - Prioritize proper nutrition, exercise, and rest for optimal well-being.
2. Being Polite - Creating positive social interactions and building strong relationships.
3. Listening - Respect others by actively listening to what they have to say.
4. Supporting - Show you care and that no one faces challenges alone.
5. Showing Kindness - Build positivity in relationships through consistent acts of kindness.

Laundry Room Reminder
